

The right hand going in two Rows of pigeon holes Eighteen inches long nine inches deep and nine inches high the whole breadth of the Rooms —

In the Secretary Office —

That there be a long Reading Desk against the partition from the barr to the wall for the books to be layd on to be about three foot high and about nine inches wide upon a square from the said partition and twenty inches descending desk fashion and that there be about three Rows of pigeon holes, each hole to be about nine inches square, above the said desk and also that there be an other such like Desk on the other side of the said Office next the wall saving the window place and also that there be pigeon holes above the said Desk as on the other side, and that underneath the Desk by the partition there be a shelf made with partitions about eighteen inches or two foot a sinder, that there be a Table about seven foot long and two foot and an half wide, and about two foot eight inches high

In the Land Office

That there be a Desk against the partition of the same dimensions of that in the Secretary Office only that it be the whole length of the Rooms, and that there be one Row of pigeon holes of about twelve inches wide and twelve inches high, and that there be a barr made for that office and a Table of the same dimensions of that in the Secretary Office and two formes of about seven foot long and a convenient height

In the Comissary Office

Desks Round the Office with shelves and pigeon holes within the barr save window Rooms, after the same manner as against the partition in the Secretary Office and that there be two formes as in the Land Office,

For the two Comittes Rooms a Table of ten foot long and two formes of the same length for each Rooms.

All which Tables are to be made with good Substantiall timber and a Row of turned Columns framed under each book desk to support them, and the whole work to be generally well done and workmanlike

And it is agreed by this Comittes with Mr Cowell and Mr Edwards who is willing to undertake the same and find every thing that he be paid therefor by the Publick as follows

For the Assembly Office	4 : 00 : 0
For the Secretary Office	8 : 00 : 0