By the Council in Assembly November 2. 1710.
The Bill proposed for regulating proceedings at Law and preventing Multiplicity of Actions in the Provincia<sup>l</sup> Court of this Province has been read at this board, and we assure you we have very hearty inclinations to relieve the unhappy State of poor distressed debtors in this Province, as much as it is in us; But being indispensably tyed to a strict observance of Her Majestys instructions, we hope and desire you will not insist upon the Bill as now proposed from your House, but that you will some other wayes as effectually provide a sufficient remedy to the Aggravance the Country now lies under and as to the other Matters in your Bill proposed either refer till an other Session or by a separate Law provide redress thereto —
Signed for the Board W. Bladen (C<sup>o</sup> Clerk)

Upon Reading the Aforegoing Message and the Bill proposed by the Council, Order'd the Comittes of Laws withdraw and draw a new Bill as near as can be to the Bill sent by the Council and the Bill proposed by this House.
