The Com^{rs} Returns and say they delivered the Journal and message Upon Reading W^t W^m Taylors petition recommended from the Honble Council praying an allowance for copying the Last Journals of the last Session sent for England Resolved that the petition was not obliged as he was Clerk of this House to transcribe any Journals of this House to England — But the Law obliges him to returns one to the Secretary who is the proper person to Transcribe the Journals, and the Intent and meaning, of making that Act, was to ease the Country of paying for Copy and this House Resolve that the Country ought not to be burthened with the charge but the Secretary ought to pay the petition.
