an Oath for the due execution of his Judiciall Office In which if you have any Just Accufation against him or any others we are ready to hear you if not hope you will not further press us any farther of this sort but faithfully execute the trust reposed in you by concluding this Session to the best advantage and service of the Country

Gentle After such amicable proceedings as have been this Session between us we little expected to our adventuring to defer laying her Majesty's Commands before you till this time, thereby presenting the charge of convening an Assembly in the future would have inst to pervert a construction that the lapsing the Publick charge, But more especially our allowances for Attendance in Council were the great occasion of this Session; Nor is there any Justice in your laying hold of the Honble Presidents exception that this was the usual time for lapsing the publick charge, Signed order Wladen COUN
