

Conscience and Duty to our selves and those we represent consent to the referring it till an other Session of a Assembly and for an instance among many other of this great abuse about the time of our coming hither an Estate of Arthur Young appraised to the Executors at near seven hundred pounds the 8. a great part thereof to the value of above 400. hath been sold for not above Sixty pounds besides fees and not long since two Negroes of John Hutchins appraised at Sixty pounds sold for thirty pounds which is soe intolerable a burthen that we cannot forbear mentioning it to your Honors in hopes to incline you to consider of this Bill at this time and prevent such Evils by assenting to the Bill —
