By the Council in Assembly December 7th 1704

This Board is very ready to agree to any thing the House proposes but think it far better ^{that} you will now agree with an Undertaker who may immediately set about it and since the Jubilee is not to be built Mr Bladen the first Proposer is willing on better Advice in case the Country will give him the Materials saved out of the Fire which apper-tained to the sd Court House to undertake it for a thousand Pounds Sterling to which we desire your Concurrence believing it will save both Money & Time.
