

and Roger went away with Clarke that if they went to plunder a Town Clarke was to be Commander on Shore that Clarke would make Droney enough and that they would have their Saps full and plunder the Spanish Towns and to that End would get a Vessel and Ammunition as soon as they could. Stimpson asked the Sailer his Name who replied he was nameless. Daniel Wolles said that if Clarke came up to Amagolis, he would find as many Friends as any Body. Thomas Peacock declares that Mr. Garriott's Servant, William Cooper, proposed to him to run away and told him of Thomas Harwoy, John Murphy, Richard Williams, John Hoyton and Richard Hicheock who had agreed to do the like Richard Williams named two more. Peacock asked their Names, to which Cooper made Answer what signified it he should know when they came. The Time intended was Sunday the sixteenth of March Instant. They proposed to take Mr. Bruff's Boat or any other Vessel.

John Hoyton declares that Cooper asked him to go a Privateering down to the Whore Hills and said John Murphy and Mr. Edwards Man had agreed to go with him on Sunday next that Murphy would get two Gallons of Rum for their voyage understood that that they were going down to the Whore Hills in Order to join Daniel Wolles and others who they heard were there and a Privateer bound to the Spanish West Indies. William Cooper told him that Stimpson lay at a House over the Bay where Clarke had lain some Time before who said he would bring a Vessel with Guns and blow up the Town. And that the Privateer was an Artist.

Richard Williams the Taylor upon his Examination denied every Thing but was confronted by the Oath of Thomas Harwoy who declared that Richard Williams asked him to go a Privateering and told him one William Monmouth had acquainted him of a Privateer setting out and that they would go to Carolina.

William Pearson says that Cooper asked him to go with him to which he agreed and that he had got Provisions. That he went to the Water Side but not finding Cooper there he returned.

John Murphy says that being much in Doubt in fear of being arrested he had Thoughts of running away that he discouraged Cooper about it and that Stimpson was privy to their Intentions.

William Cooper declares that he had agreed to run away with Peacock, afterwards Hicheock and Pearson agreed to go with them after that John Hoyton who asked them if he and Stimpson designed to go a Privateering where to he answered he know not but if he would come to Town a Parcel of them had agreed to go together. Says Stimpson did not agree to go with them though he discouraged