Samuel Young Esq; from the Council enters the House and delivers Mr. Speaker a Representation of Mr. William Bladen as Attorney of Colo Nathaniel Blackiston which follow

December 9th 1700

To the Honble The General Assembly now sitting, William Bladen Attorney of the Honble Colo Nathaniel Blackiston Agent in England for the Province humbly remonstrates that his Excellency and the Honble her Majesty's Council in April 1707 recommended to the Honble House of Delegates to take care and give Directions Colo Blackiston's Salary for one Year in September 1706 then last past and also for the following Year 1707 should be allowed by the Committee who were appointed to apportion the Levy in October 1707 Upon which his Excellency the Governor was assured by several of the worthy Members of your House that they had taken care and given Directions thereto but upon Inspection of Journal of the Committee it appears they made Colo Blackiston Allowance for the Year 1707 in full and wholly omitted for the Year 1706 which I humbly pray may be allowed him and also for this Year 1708 and that Directions may be given to the publick Treasurer readily to pay the same

Your Most Obedient Humble servant W Bladen
