Colo Coursoy and Colo Greenberry enters the House and brought with them the Bill for continuing the Proops etc and delivers Mr Speaker the following Message.

By the Council in Assembly November 1st 1709

In Answer to your Message by Mr Cambell and three other of your Members this Board do say that it has not been practicable in this Province to pass any single Bill before the Conclusion of the Session and the Effect of this Bill is as safely provided by a Bill to revive the Proops of the said County Courts and empower them to hold Courts the last Tuesday of this Month. The People will not be sooner eased of their Apprehensions by the Bill proposed than by their Representatives, acquainting them of the reviving Bill, being past for their Relief which will be done at the same Charge Signed & Order W^m Laden S^r Ho. Deb^t

Upon reading whereof it is ordered that the Committee of Laws prepare another Bill as proposed
The House adjourns till to Morrow Morning Nine o'Clock

Wednesday 2nd November 1709

The House met according to Adjournment Being called over were all present as yesterday and Colo Smithson Read what was done yesterday.
