 The Petition of Thomas Reading read in the House as folo. Viz.
 To the Honble Robert Bradley and the other Gentl. Delegates now sitting in the House of Assembly. The Humble Petition of Thomas Reading Humbly sheweth to your Honours: That inasmuch as the Assembly in the year of our Lord 1768 thought meet to constitute your Petitioner (unter as may to your Honours appear upon the then Journal, and at the same Time ordered that your Petitioner should be yearly considered by the several Counties for the Annual Laws of every Assembly the which are all ready to be produced to your Honours. Now may it please your Honours your Pet<sup>r</sup>s Allowance is so small, together with the Inconveniencies that attend the same (as has already been demonstrated to y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>rs</sup>) render your Pet<sup>r</sup>s Employment insignificant and not sufficient to maintain him. Therefore your Petitioner most humbly prays y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>rs</sup> will be pleased to take his Case into y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>rs</sup> Consideration and make him what further Allowance
