Colo Smithson having signified that he is very aged and crazy has requested that the Money in his hands due to the free Schools might be removed we desire your Advice whether it may not be proper to lodge it in the Treasury of the Western Shore on his giving Security to answer the same or if you can advise us of any other proper Person to whose Care it may be committed on the Eastern Shore in case Colo Smithson should refuse to give Security for that Money

Signed J. Order W. Bladen Esq. Secy. Lib. Sch.

Which being read was ordered to be thus indorsed. By the House of Delegates 6th Nov. 1713 This House conceives it necessary to call the Money due to the free School out of Colo Smithson's hands, unless he will give good Security for the same and recommend it to the Governor & Visitors of the free School to lodge the same in such Persons hands as they think proper either on the Eastern or Western Shore taking good Security to answer it but know not what Person to advise them to
