Colo. Holland, Colo. Greenfield, Esq. Hall, and Colo. Addison from the Council deliver Mr. Speaker the following Message Vizt

By the President and Council in Assembly Nov. 15th 1713.

On Perusal of the Report from the Conference yesterday we cannot but offer to your Consideration. 1. Whether any Person may sell, vend or utter any Brandy, Syder, Quince Drunk, or other Wine without License hereof and with whom are the Vintners or Retailers of such Wines to make Agreement for such Licenses.

2. If the Prerogative has the Power of granting such Wine Licenses and it be voted in proper Commissioners or Agents whether the Justices of the County Courts have any thing to do therewith

3. Whether it be not a natural consequence deduced from the Premises that the Queen may lawfully grant the said Power and Profits thereof to whom she thinks fit as King Charles the Second did to the then Duke of York his Brother the Prince reposed in the Crown. Vide the several Acts of Parliament therefor.

4. What Ordinary Schoole in this Province will desire a License to sell Beer and Ale only were it in the Power of the County Justices to grant such License.

5. Whether it be not worth your Reflection how much has been already and what more may be spent on this Debate and when you can think there will be an End of it whilst the Secretary continues to make his claim and to espouse it or how shall we avoid the Charge of calling for an Assembly together whenever his Majesty shall please to send his further Commands to them on this Matter. Lastly we desire every serious gentleman who will Wishes to his Country will consider whether the neglecting his Majesty's Commands will not only draw his displeasure upon us but also involve our Obedience in Misfortune at present, among which are several of your Honor which might have prevented.
