 Col: Samuel Young, and Col: Thomas Addison from her Majesty's Honourable Council enter the House and deliver Mr: Speaker the Bill for reviving an Act of Assembly of this Province entitled an Act for relieving the Inhabitants of this Province from some Aggrievances in the Prosecution of Suits at Law with the following Endorsement Viz:

By the Council in Assembly June 26th 1711

This Bill being read at the Board and the Act for relieving the Inhabitants of this Province from some Aggrievances in the Prosecution of Suits at Law there seems to be a great Inconvenience in the said Law as it now stands for that if the Creditor has his Debtor's Obligation for £250 and all is paid but a sum under £20. Now by the Words of this Law the Debt if he sues in the Prov: Court will be non suit the real Debt being under twenty Pounds Money and so in Tobs And if he sues in the County Courts which have not Jurisdiction above an £100 or thirty thousand Pounds of Tobs that Court will not take Cognizance thereof So that the Creditor is wholly without Remedy Wherefore the Question was put whether this Bill should pass or that the Act should be revised with a proper Clause added to supply the aforesaid Defect in Justice and it was unan:ly advised that the Act be revised and a proper Clause added to supply the aforesaid Defect in Justice. Wherefore we do recommend the Revising the said Law and that a proper Clause be added for supplying the Defect aforesaid and that that Part of the Preamble of Royal: said: amended . . . . . omitted
