Message Viz. By his Excellency the Governor and Council in Assembly May 25th 1715

On Consideration of the Bill now proposed for ascertaining what Damages shall be allowed on protested Bills of Exchange his Excellency was pleased to communicate unto us one of the Royal Instructions Viz. (Article 4th of) particularly relating to Bills of Exchange and enjoining his Majesty not to pass or give his Assent to any Law wherein the Property of any of his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain may be concerned unless there be a Proviso therein that it shall not be in force till after twelve Months in Time of Peace and Eighteen in Time of War. Whereupon we resolved that the said Instruction be communicated unto your House and do recommend that such Clause by way of Proviso be added to the said Bill ascertaining what Damages shall be allowed on protested Bills of Exchange.
