April the 2d 1715

Then came John Davis before me and made Oath that last October he being Employed by John Cadwell Junr went to the House of Thomas Laramore and told him he was sent with this Letter over to him from John Cadwell and let him see it and laid it on his Table and the said Laramore would not receive this Letter and desired me to carry it to him again and that it should not be left in his house, and that Thomas Willson who lives within a little way of the said Laramore told me that John Cadwell had formerly sent Thomas Laramore a Letter to the same purpose of this and that it was in J. Willson's house and Laramore would not let it be read to him
