

That the Officers to the contrary their Names be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver by you and that the Masters of Vessels of silver be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver for every day he attends and the Deuts of the Councils of the Government be allowed for every day he attends his Councils and Councils of the Councils of the City of London for his services to be allowed four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —
The Council of the City of London for his services to be allowed four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —

That the Officers to the contrary their Names be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver by you and that the Masters of Vessels of silver be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver for every day he attends and the Deuts of the Councils of the Government be allowed for every day he attends his Councils and Councils of the Councils of the City of London for his services to be allowed
four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —

By the Council in Assembly May the 26th 1715
The Council of the City of London for his services to be allowed
four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —
The Council of the City of London for his services to be allowed four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —

Ordered however that all the Officers to the contrary their Names be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver for every day he attends and the Deuts of the Councils of the Government be allowed for every day he attends his Councils and Councils of the Councils of the City of London for his services to be allowed
four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —

That the Officers to the contrary their Names be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver by you and that the Masters of Vessels of silver be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver for every day he attends and the Deuts of the Councils of the Government be allowed for every day he attends his Councils and Councils of the Councils of the City of London for his services to be allowed
four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —

That the Officers to the contrary their Names be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver by you and that the Masters of Vessels of silver be allowed a hundred and eighty pounds of silver for every day he attends and the Deuts of the Councils of the Government be allowed for every day he attends his Councils and Councils of the Councils of the City of London for his services to be allowed four hundred pounds of silver for every day he attends —