By the lower house of Assembly
By Henry John, Secy. Genl. Gov. of Maryland

By the Senate
By your Excellency

By what your Excellency was pleased to say at the opening of this Session we perceive these reports are not further to be regarded, unless at last meeting induced us to, though your Excellency for a prerogative to prevent what we here feared, would have proved a fruitless charge and trouble & since your Excellency has not received any instructions to the contrary of what you were then pleased to recommend we shall proceed to the consideration & disposal thereof, in the best manner we are able.
