Esq. Young, John Hall Esq and Jos Huntington from the Upper House Deliver
The Speaker the following from his Com.

The Speaker
I desire you will please to acquaint the Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly that the address presented to me yesterday was very acceptable in every Circumstance.

Next loyal expressions of his most sacred Majesty are a continued instance of their firmness and duty to his Royal person and of their ardent zeal for the best part of the Protestant Religion.

I shall not be wanting to give the best Impressions I am capable of to the Hon. House and the Lord Guilford on his Lordships behalf of your hearty Congratulation to his Lordship on his Restoration to the Government in the Province and as I am convinced that a good understanding between the Lord

Proprietor and the Inhabitants of Maryland is equally the Interest of his Lordships and this people, I shall not omit any duty for to inform his Lordships of such men as either have or may lead his Lordships into improper measures, so as to give any disgust to the well affected in this Government.

As to what relates to my particular, it is very obliging and kind that I desire to make my acknowledgements by the sincerity of my actions as the best return I can offer for the good opinion they have given my Conduct.

I am sorry I have reason to say notwithstanding I find my Administration so acceptable to this Province that I have been under a necessity to desire my Lord Proprietor and my Lord Guilford that they will please to remove me from the Station I am in. Some of my reasons for such request will appear to you on the perusal of the Copy of my Petition carried.

My petition here with sent you I should not be understood that I impute the Treatment I have met with to the good Proprietor nor yet to my Lord Guilford but to the Advice of some persons who either are not capable or unwilling to give better Council to His
