

Parliament Lord Spk from the upper house delivers Mr Speaker the Letter prepared by the Com^o of Laws to the Hon^{ble} Mr Speaker Nath^l Baskin which we ordered to be entered as follows (Birt)

Monday July the 31st 1716

We here with give you the trouble of two addresses the one to his Majesty the other to the Lords Proprietary and desire your assistance in the having them presented as directed and that you will favour us with a line by way of remembrance on the manner of their Reception.

We think our selves under more obligations for your frequent good service than your generosity would allow us to expectate.

We must needs the less yet desire a continuance of your favourable Solicitations and nothing in us shall be wanting, to demonstrate the grateful sense we have of your good offices and that we are Your most obedient humble Serv^{ts}
