An answer to a message brought down this morning from the Upper house by Mr Whittington relating to the fines on Admiralty Licences the following message was prepared and ordered to be sent thus (Read)

May it please your Ex^{ty} By the Ex^{ty} house of Assembly 9th Aug 1716

In answer to your message this morning by Mr Whittington about the fines on Admiralty Licences we are of opinion that enacting on the Subjects and Embarrasment which we apprehend will arise on that Subject this house not being satisfied that the right is in my Ex^{ty} Baltimore whereby this License must necessarily continue longer than other wise it would be will prove 205 a greater inconveniency than our own license. We returne the Bill
