Mr. G. Bingham from the upper house delivers Mr. Speaker

The Bill printing the Substant to see in their own names &c.

thus endorsed

By the Upper house of Assembly Aug 6th 1716

We have read and considered the Bill and do think that the giving liberty to persons to sue out writs in their own names will Subduce many inconveniences and mischief such as gratifying Revenge murthering their actions and consequently paying costs of suit and being notwithstanding that that part of the Bill admitting people when sued to appear in their proper persons and when Bail given if required to comply wth Judgment without employing an attorney we readily agree thereto.

As to the last clause obliging the Attorneys not to sue for his fee till the cause is finished here we are of opinion, it will occasion attorneys who have good practice to refuse poor mens causes unless they pay them before hand.

John Young and for the Speaker from the Upper house delivered.
