Lease, I am
Yr. Ex^{ty} very humble servant

Geo. Corwall.

Mr. Wick was thus entreated (viz^t)

Gen^l. of the Ho^us & Lord house of Assembly.

As I just now received the indeed surprising and violent letter and Gen^l.

— Noticing the circumstances of my health it is very inhuman in yo^r Passion.

As to what that Gen^l speaks of my salary. I know not what his means the word. Salary being a Term the mean and has to accept from a subject by a person who has had the honour to serve the Gen^l in so many employments — In the next place the word. He mentions was put into his Instructions by Gen^l's own procurement as a Gen^l. of the Gen^l's

* House can employ others, and tis it is in his Instructions I have the law on my side, and if I had not I stand as a protestant Governour to give to a violent Papist to know when my family may have leave to eat

Alone the whole I can't see what his violent man would be at except the 3^d for his per Ann, which I have before told my Relation on and yet he was positively and impudently demands it to be paid to him, may

Gen^l give him your Opinion — — — — — Y^r Obed^t
