

For want of due support & aid of the
The Province is thus in the most happy condition.

That over it was since the first Settlement of the said Province the State of things in your affairs since then Providence has been so indulgent to you and put the means into your hands & your Government to advance the Hon^{ble} & substantial of your Country for the Particular good of your Indian who ever they should be the incurable loss they will sustain in the want of a suitable Education in their Youth they would begin their Tears to my Antiquities —

By the said Proprietary and Quarters of your said Province the said Affairs of the said Province by his said Right to the Ordinary of your and as your request it was left to the consideration of this Province Shall again receive Instructions to the like Purposes and shall communicate them unto you and hope they will meet with no Difficulty in ordering thereof in any of your said Proprietary ways
In great necessity of a Regulation in the Ordinary —

Gentlemen
My Son & my Daughter & my Son's Daughter
I am glad to hear you thought proper to request of them that as has been given you all the Advances of maintaining your said Preserving to you your Rights and Privileges — It will be then your to make such grateful returns as may give his said Right the satisfaction proof of your Dutiful Affections which is in itself is all it is I am glad to hear you have taken what Satisfaction you may enjoy under the Trade Company of Baltimore —

W. Hall

As Mr. Hall's Letter was received to the said Province the following Answer from the said Baltimore and Quarters to the Letters of the said and the said Houses of the said Province in July 1716 which was ordered to be returned by the —

The Answer of the Right Hon^{ble} Francis Lord Quarters Guardian to the Right Hon^{ble} Charles Lord Baltimore and Proprietary of the Province of Maryland & Barbours for and on his behalf To the Letters of the said Answer and Answer House of the said Province Proprietary of Maryland —

(Sent)