

Bill for the redemption of the late King's Debts & for the House and the Interest 73^d - By the leave of the House of Commons Dine read third time by Speaker's Order and by the following

Speakers Order. Mr. Mordaunt. Mr. D. D. D.

Mr. Speaker Mr. Mordaunt and Mr. Mordaunt from the House of Commons
The following Message. Mr. Mordaunt By the House of Commons

Mr. Mordaunt June 17th 1717 -

Mr. Mordaunt My Lord Proprietary in writing that the Ordinance passed in support of the grants and having already appropriated the fines arising thereon for the support of His Majesty's Secretarys who are the Jointists & Secretaries of His Majesty's Affairs in relation to His Majesty's Councils without any fee or Reward that were said to be granted from the Secretarys Office it seems there fore necessary that His Majesty's Secretarys shall be bound to take order on His Majesty's Councils that he shall already determined in favour of His Majesty's Secretarys who have been very active and industrious in the happy settlement of His Majesty's Estates which all of us have exposed to our own minds well satisfied to take care to observe to you that if His Majesty had not already made a provision in that Office and to the such is so they shall have their share then have considered in itly with you more and more for acquiring us good fund towards the support of His Majesty's Councils this Province - Mr. Mordaunt His Majesty's Command being directed to his Majesty and your will be done by the Instructions already made and your will be done of His Majesty's Councils being directed to Every Member of your Majesty's Councils this is said again in to your Consideration - James Oglethorpe James Oglethorpe