Gentlemen

On reading the Bill from Your house by Capt Colegate and three others for Regulating of Ordinaries His Excy was pleased to say to this House as follows — The Lord propry in y^e 11^th Article of ye Instruccons already Layd Before you Assets the Ordinary Lycences to be indoubtedly in his Lpp and then Disposes of them as his Lordship thinks fitt being a Branch of his prerogative and therefor I Cant in his Lordships name pass this Bill into a act which takes from his Lordships right and gives it to him only as a Complement and hope the Lower House will think Convent to alter some part of the preamble to this Bill — Whereupon you may perceive y^e the Law Cannot pass with the preamble as it now Stands and we must further Observe to you that We are of Opinion that y^e right of granting Ordinary Lycences is in the Lord propry — nothing having yet appeared to us Shewing the Contrary — But if you Cannot Come up to our Opinion We Desire you'll joyn in a Conference with some members of this House, whereby we hope to Convince you of the Reasonableness thereof — Signed by Order — John Beard Cl. Lr. Ho. —
