

When 1700 the same is referred till next session 1701 returned 1702 shune not exceeding 50 sterling be raised out of the three pences for for maintaining a magazine towards the finishing the Cornish Roar & now to be built -

Dr. Smith's Act to amend the Statute of the Restoration those Records which Bills he shall receive for the three pence yearly for the maintaining a magazine in each of the three pence the said Statute directed to Cap: & Surge and that the Debts the said with the Bills inclosed to the said Mr. William and Mr. Wark to be put on board some ship bound for Great Britain -

An Act to the said Statute Proprietary and Purveyor read in the House and signed by the Speaker and the rest of the members of this House which Adversations in this word is -

So the right Honorable Ladies Abolition and Protectors the provinces of Maryland and North Carolina and the rest of the Noble Proprietors the R. & Son & the said Proprietors -

We the Delegates of this Province for the said Province met to Agree with the People of this Province under your Lordships Government beg leave to advise your Lordships with our humble and hearty thanks for the ingaging of special Deputies with the opening this Session by your Lordships consent: Governour and with our humble Respects to Congratulate your Lordships on this happy Occasion of celebrating our selves in separately engaged take the Interest of your Lordships that Property who has so eminently distinguished himself
-

made by the meritorious Conduct of our loyal subject to our Governour and King George and the true protestant Governour thus under a resolution to be and die a faithful member of the Church of England, by his noble and generous have been used by some so against themselves by surrounding others to believe their Rank & Principles under the Gallantry - make them greater your Lordships than we seem to be and we know & wish them for your Lordships real Services to your Lordships who are the same time they are intended to be in the Country for the same reason to your Lordships and general Satisfaction for your Lordships to raise their own Rank and Reputation where - We again beg leave to Congratulate you upon