We received by the hands of our worthy friend Colonell Blackiston the regard you have paid to our Declarations and Actions is the more gratefull to us as it tends to lay aside all fears and Jelousies and place confidence between the Lord proty and his people &c. Sure way to make both happy.

As we would by no meanes give up any branch of our just prerogative so by our Instructions relating to the Ordinary Lycences you may perceive how desirous we are to prevent any Differences about them, and as we have applyed the fines arising by the Laws lately made to the use of our Secretarys, so we could have wish'd, it had not been Made Temporary y^t no occasion Might hereafter offer it Self whereby a Dispute may arise so happily laid aside for the present.

We greatly comend the Care you Expres for the encouragem^t of good Literature among you amidst the many advantages arising from Charity Schools lately set up in great Brittaine by the Subscriptions of Severall inhabitants within their Distinct Parishes where Youth are taught and instructed in the true Orthodox faith of the Church of England, This one is more observed to redound from them that they are so many Nurs[eries] and Offences ag^t Popery and you may be well Assured that we shall never be wanting on a proper Occasion to encourage so Commendable a worke.
