

out by Philip Fendall was read and ordered to be this Monday by the Law House of Assembly Nov. 28. 1718.
On reading the petition read & heard bearing the name of J. Sent me are of Spinners that Judgment is therein fully rendered up. The petitioner to his Damages will pay for the same for by the Judges is ordered that hee shall pence to my Superior. Court of Admiralty Humbly the petitioner to your Excellency for redress the Justices of Dorchester County as well as the Justice and Attorney therein mentioned being now in Town. Signed Wm. Dwyer Esq. to her.

The petition of Mr. John Brannock on the behalf of Tho.
Brannock a Minor was read and ordered to be this Sunday Nov. 6.

May 16. 1718 By 4. Comrs. of the Assembly Nov. 13. 1718.
Your Excellency

On reading the within petition for y. it seems the matter Complain'd of was by some of the Justices of Dorchester County return'd some for this saydices in this Office the same is refer'd to your Excellency & Honours to do therein as may be thought necessary

Signed Wm. Dwyer Esq. to her
Which two foregoing Petitions with their several Indorsers & were sent to the upper House by Mr. Carter

They returned in this manner By order from the upper House Delivered to the Attorneys Messrs. W. & S. By order of the Court of Sept. 17. 1718.

The petition of the Inhabitants of Dorchester County which was referred from last Session being signed by one hand and no power to signifying the same since being ready to make their Defence) we advise to be Informed who signed it & if it be theirs or otherwise their any of your Honours concerned in the prosecution thereof which is this to be advise they may appear to your Honours

Signed Wm. Dwyer Esq. to her