Regarding the Report of the Conference on the separation of the Clergy this House agrees to their Opinion and therefore think that the putting the Ecclesiastical laws in Execution here would be altogether impracticable and therefore refer the Consideration thereof to the upper House & ordered the following message be passed by

By the lower house of Assembly May the 31st 1710 may it please? We have read the report of the Conference appointed our honours - to consult on the Clergy's representation and agree with them in Opinion that the putting the Ecclesiastical Laws in force here would be altogether impracticable and therefore the Consideration thereof to your honours - signed by Order Westmst for the Bishop

And sent to the upper house by John Mackel the 1st Aug 2^o 1710^o 1710^o - They return the 1st Aug 1710^o - the 1st Aug 1710^o - the 1st Aug 1710^o - But for imitating and entertaining the manner of taking the Declaration of Separation was read and ordered to be thus read viz - By the House of Commons
