By the upper house of Commons By Marys King

His Excellency reminding us of the act made in June 1715 for Continuing the memory of the said James II: in the Death of the right honourable Charles the Second in the to 14: of September following we think it very proper that you should inquire into the Disposition of such money as has been raised upon account of their Duty of Excise since so that that sum may be discovered whether and and how much there of may be owing to the said Charles of this Province being that by the terms of the act 1715 it was concluded that if his Majesty would not accept of the 10: shillings per acre as a Provision for the said
