By the upper house of Assembly May the 6th 1710

Gent.

On reading your Message by Mr. Robt. Tyler and Mr. Jno. Ward we perceive that you have made a Computation of the Value of the workmanship Of the Magazine Built by Thos. Cooke and that you have Resolved that he shall have one hundred Pounds Sterling more for finishing the same this house Desires you to acquaint them whether he made any propositions to you of what work yet remains unfinished y we may see whether it be agreeable to the Bargaine already made; but if you have Done nothing therein it remains in his Excellency to come to a positive Determination w.th him what further Workmanship is yet to be performed for the finishing the s.d Magazine before the money be Ordered him ~ " ~ " ~ Signed p Order Jno. The answer to which the following Message was prepared viz.t ~ By the Lower house of Assy May.y 6th 1710

May it please your Honours By Mr. Cookes Gen.l Computation the finishing the Magazine Workmanlike as it ought to be, would amount to two hundred pounds Currency more then he was to have by the first Bargain Wherefore we Considered y.t the Bargaine was somewhat hard on his Side and Desired your Concurrence in Allowing him one hundred pounds Sterl.g more to make him a Recompence M.r Cooke has not made any particular Propositions to us of what work remains to be finished Therefore we refer y.m wholly to his Excy to Determine and to order the Payment of the mony on the finishing the work ——— " ——— " ——— " ———
