

ALLMILLERS Equity & Generosity according to your Bishops Pleasure signified to them. — Bill such is the Justice & Justice of those Bishops But not Content with the favour and Intelligence of the Governor in this Ring at the Allowance of their Nobility Who notoriously Justice they were very busy in making Interest and parties for votes at the Election of Delegates to serve in Parliament by the being Observed by the lower House and Apprehending the same practice at Election of a Bishops their own Regions of Liberty for the City of Amsterdam they proposed a Bill to Dissolve the party & all other Bishops Excepted who are otherwise qualified said their Nobles refuse the oath appointed by Law from giving their votes at the Election for Bishops to serve in Parliament their my Bishops is the true reason of making the act which fills the Roman Catholics with Complaints of being Deprived of their Birthrights which as they say the subjects enjoy even in great Britain where as in truth we have done nothing but what is agreeable to a Statute of Great Brittain made in the Seventh a Fifth of the late King William Chap. 27 What if MAY it please your Bishops — We likewise think it our Duty to set you into true reason & motives the Justice as to make one after of a Statute to Dissolve that Parliament by in his practice of the Law Case of the Crown & Captured your Bishops have already met with too much Justice on that head and we may reasonably believe if you were Dissolved of and did expect Popul and his to affair by requiring him to make such reasonable Submission as should be proposed of by your Government — But such is the unhappy temper of your Counsell — But such is the unhappy temper of your Counsell that neither your words nor reports work any thing upon his stubborn Spirit he goes & perceives by the relation of his behaviour before the upper House and your report of the Justice of the Law and with other matters relating unto his Justice Behaviours are entered upon our Journals in a friendly manner upon their Consideration of your words & course Resolved to send your Bishops to bring in a Bill to Dissolve the
