

DIFFICULTIES it is probable his Majesty, whatever given so large Example of his Goodness for? Inauguram?
If Learning in great Britain, will be relaxed to extend his Bounty here and Direct you some benefit or equivalent for that said that was intended for the Increase of Learning among you — They woudt may you not expect from so pious, so Gracious and benevolent a Sovereigns narrow limits the Those whom God long Preserve in all felicity to do so — There are so many Advantages for? making and repairing of High ways, that the King speaks it self so shall only Obedience to you that the — Facts in force for that purpose are not — many parts of this Province put in execution and as I conceive it proceeds from the want of a Sufficient number the Overseers and others that — refuse to pay Obedience to their Orders & that generally the manner of the people are appointed to those Offices which Oblige me to repeat what I said on — an Other. Sea shore no man is too good to derive his Country Recommend to you in a particular manner as a publick use and Honour to this Province that you will make such provision as you shall find necessary for the Building of a Bridge over the River Gattigent at Queen Wims Town in this County and for making a safe a convenient Road, over — that dangerous place called Kent marches on the Eastern shore — There two passes being the great Road through the Street of this County — and also the usual and shortest passage for all travelers, to, and from his Majesties Plantations his Continent — Since of find the excessive Charge to the Country for the Selling of quills who's not Decreases in proportion to what was expected for