

I will be sure that due my best Veto Considerations I think this Proposal from my friends is good, for the Goods of this Province, which I shall always rank at home, are your carefull least you should hurt your Sellers, tho' by your own Consent and wish will Prosperity & dangers pay. When they are Inform'd the Prices you make on these little Animals has got the Country by a prodigious putation in one Year 7000 pounds Sterling - - - When I reflect on the happy Increase of the South in this Province and the usual importation of ^{Wool} ~~Wool~~ ^{Wool} ~~Wool~~ & Wool into it yet that the Number of your Tarbells do not amount to what it might be reasonably Expected from these Causes its Natured from hence to conclude that there are not sufficient made to the publick this is worthy your Indignation and in my Opinion these cannot be too severally punished upon such who will fully Consent that Tarbells, and so Defraud the publick; whereas all that receive protection from you seem, ought to bear an equal Proportion of what the which is good for the Common Good Yours Gentlemen

I have after my accustomed method said before you the intention of your Meeting and what I have offered in the Sincerity of my Heart proposed for you well see But as you see, I think you, a free people, do may you accept or refuse, what from I desire to you, as you shall find it for the Concomency or Incomcomency of your Country - - -

J. W. L.

At the Speaker and the best of the Members of this House intend returns to their own House where Mr. Speaker intends to have and reports what his say had before said - - - The House proceeds to the Choice of their Clerk - - - Whereupon Mr. Fletcher's Name is unanimously chosen - - -

Ordered that John Rowley Esq. and Mr. Phillips do go to the House to present