

Bill against a particular Person Without hearing the Party which is the unchristian right of every one of his Majesty's Subjects, we are Oblig'd to Dissent to the said Act, and we hereby Declare the same to be null void & of no Effect

Laws made against Persons have been rarely pass'd in England but always extend severe, and we hope such all Generall Act may be made as well so Effectually reach all particular persons for the future that there may be no more Occasion to have resort to the like extraordinary means

We are much Concern'd to hear that ignorant & oppressive Suits contrary to your Laws have be carry'd on against any the Members of this Province but we have had such great Experience of the wisdom & Justice of the Administration under his Majesty in all its parts that we are sure such proceedings can never be concern'd and that they may be rightly prevent'd we have taken an Opportunity to lay your Excellency there by before the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs very on have known us so long you make such as very good Judgments from our Letters of we hope nothing more at heart than the Protestant's Liberty, with a tender Compassion to Conscience truly scrupulous Dispensing from it this year let no Inauguration or the suggestion of some minded men who neither regard your Propriety or your Authority make you apprehend that any Endeavors either publick or private can hurt the Law Influence on the Conscience Relations between you & your Proprietaries and his great Councils concern in several of them

The above mentioned Act being to adjournment

Resolved that Mr Richard Spring & Benjamin Attendant to his Honor and Honor's day were desired The rules of this House & Resolutions to and will be Revok'd that this House will sit to do