

THE shall therefore in pursuance of their Duties - recommendations Endeavour (as we think it our indubitable Duty) to make such provision by a General Law to support the Kings Lutes in the Administration of Justice - as may be sufficient for that End, and shall accordingly Impetration of Faculty by proposing a particular Law for the like Support against the particular Grand Jur. may not be liable to the Excesses your Exy. is pleas'd to mention. However private Suit may have been brought by the parties Claimours of the papers, yet we are well pleas'd yet whoever questions have to be made into the Court of their Allegations & Grounds of their Complaints will stay with us in abating the fault of your Excellency's Declaration, and be as ready as itself - The Cases of Great Britain The Courts of Jurisdiction - they them even here the Liberties they have hitherto enjoy'd they have abus'd these Liberties ~~and~~ with Impunity and yet Complain against the Justice and Kings Administration for no other Cause therefore know of. But opposing their Objections to wards the Justice of the Court in their Proceedings, Wee take this to be an ill Example they ungratefully term it of Executors - and they leave to payk with your Excellency in denying them to be one thing in Justice of Severity from either Government or Justice and we joy'd to find their Lordships are so well supplied of that true of the case as to change their Proceedings. Therefore and so ours.

wee are glad to find that John Carto we - Doubt not are the most singular & Considerable of that kind have not shyn'd with the rest in their Indignity & Barbarous treatment of your Excellency for trying the Late British Government, and would wish the rest would follow their Examples, that all who profess the Christian Faith might with safety to the Government be protected by it in their Encroachments - Liberties. But we are indispensably oblig'd to act generally and faithfully against it and we are pleas'd that Endeavours to subvert it and prevent the more maintaining of our people and allures them to the Suppression of their Church -
