of June from Henry Roberts to John Ford was read and ordered to be read Endorsed viz: — By the wordes hereof I humbly praye my Grace this present time and with this — signed P. Dore
The 27th of Febr. 1638

And sent to the upper house by Mr. Benson & Mr. Street

They return and say they Delivered it — Mr. Peter Saly for being sent for to answer the Petition of Gottis Pattard against him, he appeared as also the said Pattard with sundry Evidences in relation thereto, and for that it appears to the house that the said Saly has suffered some indecent Expressions in respect to his Excellency the Governour —

It is the Opinion of His Justice that he ought to make his submissions to his Excellency the Governour and ask his pardon for any Offences which he may thereby —
