By the Upper house of a Assembly May 30: 1719 - Mr. Hall from the Upper house Delivers Mr. Speaker the following Message viz: In Answer to your Message of the 25th Inst. by Mr. Godd & Mr. Smith his Excellency having Declared to this house that Col: Lloyd showed him a Letter directed to the said Col: Lloyd from Capt. Dr. Hild wherein was shewed the Opinion of the Lord Council of Trade whereby they set forth that the severall Summs allowed him by the publick for his Attendance as a Councillor during the time of his Presidency was his Right. and for that the said Col: Lloyd is now dead. we think it reasonable his widow have time till the next Session to produce that Opinion or make such other Defence she shall think fit. Unless this shall be thought a sufficient Satisfaction - And as to that part of your Message relating to Mr. Cronby this house is of Opinion that so much of the Money arising by that duty as has been stoped for receivers Salary, was misapplied, but that there was no other fund to allow it out of except such as were already appropriated and Mr. Cronby having laid before us his Accounts of that Duty proved before
