

His Excellency's Speech in Council at the Delivering up the Great Seals of this Province - Gentlemen

I MUST confess myself surprized at the manner of proceeding to restore Mr Macnemara by a formall precept to his practice before me, Without Making adue-Submission to me who was personally affronted in the Execution of that office wherein I represented the Lord-Proprietary

I say I am surprized because I find this precept (or Order or whatever Denomination it may go under, for it is a Novelty) Contrary to their Lordships Sundry Letters that signified their Approbation (Even with of what I had done in that matter, That Mr Macnemara ought not to be restored, till he made his due Submission to me, and now to find their Lordships order him to be restored without so much as a Letter from them to me on an occasion (which surely was not trifling) do's indeed Amaze me, and Certainly the Support of the Magistrates will Deserve your attention at least.

These affronts were given me by Macnemara and to whom in a publick Station were they not given by man of Infamous and insolent Memory) in the Execution of my Office is Admitted - These were Vertually affronts to his Lordships but they were such actually to me, and tho' I doubt not but his Submission to their Lordships has sufficiently satisfied for affronts to them, yet I find (tho' I desired no other than (Submission)
