Sworn to before his Excellency in this House —

Signed by Order J^r Beale Esq: Ho:

His Excellency and this House observe on the following Proceedings — that although the most Eminent of the Papists were in town at the time appointed them to make good their protestations yet they have not thought fit to appear there or at any time since to offer any thing in vindication of their pretended rights and therefore take this their Dominion as a fact & know no judgment
