remain unpublished upon your arrival, Duplicates of which Instructions you will have herewith delivered to you.

Proclamation by Act of Assembly 3 October: is given to John Hart Esq: so long as he shall continue Governor of the Province of Maryland in continuing among other things in the proambles of the said Act the great hope & Expectations of Govr of your Friend of his good Government

And whereas the Gen: Assembly have lately addressed themselves to us in relation to the Support of the Free School built at Annapolis, you having signified our intentions with their Assistance to promote so good an Undertaking, cannot think it will be unacceptable to a people so well disposed that a moiety should of the said Expenses Should be applied towards the maintenance of the said School or the other moiety — Should be given to the Governor for the time being the letter to Encourage him by all such from time to time to do the same as before Applied and to induce him by all other methods that may Offer to bring to perfection such a design or at least that you the said Charles Calvert should enjoy the moiety, being confident that you will in all things answer our Wishes and not doubting but the aforesaid Expectations of the good People of Maryland will be fully answered by your good Government as by any who have gone before you — It is therefore our Desire that the same be so applied

On Reading and Considering that part of his Lordships Speech relating
