

begin me and Mr. a de with that last October he being employed by John Cadwell Junr went to the house of Thomas Paramore and told him he was sent with this letter one to him from John Cadwell and let him see it and laid it on his table and the said Paramore would not receive this letter and desired me to carry it to him again and that it should not be left in his house, and that Thomas Wilson who lives within a little way of the said Paramore told me that John Cadwell had formerly sent Thomas Paramore a letter to the same purpose of this, and that it was in Mr. Wilsons house and Paramore would not let it be sent to him.
