

thinks it his duty to assert its rights thereto, wherefore we think fit to acquaint you thereof and recommend to you to ascertain by a law what the fines of these Licences shall be. His Excellency being pleased to declare that if the County shall think fit to advance two thirds in proportion towards building of a house for his Majesty's Gov. he will be willing during the time of his Government here they should be applied to that use, until such house is built.

Signed for order W. Bladen Clerk Com. side.

The following is proposed in answer to the Message by Gov. Young and Gov. Addison about the fines of Ordinary Licences Vizt.

By the House of Delegates May the 19th 1715.

May it please yr Excellency's Honors

Having considered and Debated your Message by Gov. Samuel Young and Gov. Addison about the fines of Ordinary Licences and the proposal of building a House for his Majesty's Gov. here we are willing that such fines be by Law settled on his Majesty's Gov. here for and towards building a House for his Majesty's Gov. here the Law to continue for three years and to the end of the next Session of a Assembly after the three years. And as for raising a fund for two thirds in proportion to be applied for building such a house the same cannot well be done at present till its known what such fines yearly amount to, at which time there shall be a provision made for the two thirds either out of the Publick Stock or by such other way as then shall be thought most expedient.
