

Will send to us the Periodical of S^r M^r. Augustine Herman's proposed examination made to be duly dictated according to laws, signed by the said Board of Commerce

The House adjourn'd till one in the afternoon.

Then the House being called one was present as in the Morning.

Gov^r Boulog, with Honors, then shall say unto Gov^r M^r. Livingston from the M^r. House Returns M^r. Speaker the following from his Excellency M^r. Speaker,

Service you will please appoint the Gentlemen of the House for the evening) to the whole present to meet yesterday was very acceptable in every circumstance.

His Excellency's expressions of his most please Majesty are continued instance of their firmness and duty to his Royal person and of their zeal for the well fare of the Protestant Religion.

I shall not be wanting to give the best my profession can Capable of to the said Prop^r and the said Guildford on his Excellency's behalf) of your having consultation to his Excellency on his Restoration to the Government in this Province and as a Governor that a good understanding between the said Prop^r and the inhabitants of Maryland is equally the interest of his Excellency and this people, shall not omit my duty to inform his Excellency of such men as either have or may bear his Excellency into his proposed measures, so as to give any misgiving to the well affected in this Government.

As to what relates to my particular it is very obliging and kind that I desire to make my acknowledgments by the sincerity of my actions as the first return I can offer for the good opinion they have of my conduct.

I am very oblig'd to you for your particular regard and assistance to me to accept of this Province) that I have seen under a necessity to advise myself Prop^r and my Lord Guildford that they will please to remove me from the Station I am in - Some of my reasons for such request will appear to you on the perusal of the copy of Mr. Charles Carroll's Commission herewith sent you.

I should not be understood that I impudently the treatment I have must write to the said Prop^r nor yet to my Lord Guildford but to the advise of some persons who either are not Capable or unwilling to give to the Council.
