

and Examined by the youngest Justice present on the Bench who shall burn them at the Court house and that no Certificates be granted to any but such as doe kill the Crows and Squills either by themselves their Children or Servants and that not till such persons have made oath of their being so killed in the County where they Claimed allowance therefor

And in the next place that any person detected of having sworn falsely shall be deemed a Trefessor and be fined to the Lord Prop^r of his heirs & Successors towards the County the sume of ten pounds current money otherwise suffer twelve months imprisonment of their bodies on mainprize.

Signed for order W Bladen Clerk up^r house
St. Col^l Tilghman from the Upper house delivered Mr. Speaker the following message (viz^t)

By the up^r house of Assembly Aug^r 2^o 1716.

Gents,
In answer to your message on the 28th of July last wherein you are of opinion that the duty of 18^o p^{er} cent subject to the payment of the officers Sallary of 805 p^{er} cent is a sufficient Compensation for his Lordships accepting of Job^t at 2^o p^{er} cent for his lands rents, we have consulted Mr. Carroll his Lordships Agent who says that he humbly conceives that such a part of the Sallary within mentioned as the Hon^{le} House shall not think fitt to make provision for may for his Lordps service and the prevention of delay or Interruption of so publick a good as is proposed be postponed for the present without concluding his Lordship from making the reasonable exp^{er} of his expectation (not to be burthened with any part of the said Sallary) appear at any other time which we refer to the Consideration of your house.

Signed for order W Bladen Clerk up^r house

Which is ordered to be Considered of to morrow Morning
Col^l Smith from the Upper house delivered Mr. Speaker the following.

By the up^r house of Assembly Aug^r 2^o 1716.

Gents,
In answer to your message yesterday wherein you desire to prevent future debates, and that as to such officers as are to be exempted in the Bill in your message referred to, we should name such as we should think reasonable, we must observe to you that those officers are so many of us we may not readily apprehend them all, some think it may suffice to make an Exemption of all such persons who only manage his Lordships private Estate within this Province and that any person or