

Sum the Money he paid for discovering the persons that find the Summs on the supposed anniversary or Birth day of the person Commonly called the Pretender and that on his Ex^{ty}s Receipt being produced the same shall be allowed the said Treasurers in account by the publick

The house adjourns till 8 a clock to morrow Morning

Saturday Morning the 4th of Aug^r 1716.

The house being called over Members were present as yesterday.

The proceedings of the House on Yesterday were read.

On a Motion being made the Question was put whether Mr. Thomas Burdley one of the Members of this house should be permitted to act as Counsell for Edward Lloyd Esq^r in the Upper house upon the vote of this house for his refunding some allowances made him as a Counsellor during his Presidency and on a Message from this house of Yesterday.

Resolved in the Negative.

In Answer to a Message brought down of the second Instant from the Upper house by Col. Thomas Smith relating to the Bill for the Peace and Safety of his Lordships Government and Endorsement thereon of the 31st July last, the following Message was prepared and Ordered to be entered thus (viz^t.)

By the Lower house of Assembly 4th Aug^r 1716.

May it please Y^r Hon^r?

Pursuant to your Message of the 2^d Instant by Col. Thomas Smith relating to the Bill for the Peace and Safety of his Lordships Government and your endorsement on the said bill of the 31st of July last,

We have amended and made a further addition to the said Bill giving persons concerned in my Lordships Private affairs liberty to transact them for twelve months next ensuing which bill is herewith sent that your Hon^r may on reading the same see whether you like the addition or whether the amendments be conformable to what you propose till which time this house would not pass it, for Engraving.

Signed for order Tho: Maenevan Ch. Sec^r Ho.

Sent to the upper house ^{with the} bill by Mr. Stoddart and Col. Maenevan

Who return and say they delivered it.

Col. Whittington from the Upper house delivers Mr. Speaker the following Message, (viz^t.)

By the Upper house of Assembly Aug^r 3^d 1716.

Gent^l.

In answer to your Message by Mr. Rowley and three more of your house, his Excellency is pleased to declare that in his opinion the right to those ordinary Licenses is in my Lord Baltimore, tho' it never was in St. Thomas Laurence, and that the Grants