Then the house met and being called over Members were present as in the Morning, Except Mr. Stodder, and Capt. Colegate who had leave to depart to their respective ~~own~~ habitations on their several promises to attend the publick Service next Monday.

In Answer to a Message brought down this Morning from the upper house by Col. Whittington relating to the fines on Ordinary Licences the following Message was prepared and Order'd to be Introd thus (Vizt.)

May it please yr hon.

By the Lower House of Assembly 4th Aug. 1716.

In answer to your Message this Morning by Col. Whittington about the fines on Ordinary Licences, we are of opinion that entering on the debates and Contraversies which we apprehend will arise on that Subject (this House not being Satisfid that the right is in my Lord Battersea, whereby this Session must necessarily be continued longer than otherwise it would be, will prove a Greater inconvenience than any can happen by referring the said fines and right to them to the Consideration of the next Session, and therefore humbly pray your Hon. to agree to a Reference of the Consideration of them till that time.

Signed for us Tho. Maeremara Ch. Sp. Ho.
