The Bill for permitting the Inhabitants to sue in their own Names &c.
thus Endorsed.

By the Upper House of Assembly Aug. 10th 1716.

We have read and Considered the Bill and doe think that the giving liberty to persons to sue out writs in their own Names will Introduce many Inconveniencies and Mischief such as gratifying Revenge Mislaying their actions and consequently paying Costs of Suite and being non-suited but as to that part of the Bill admitting people
