The house adjourns till one o'clock in the afternoon,
 The house being called over (most present as in the morning).
 Mr. Boardly from the Committee of Laws delivers Mr. Speaker,
 An act to confirm his Lordships acceptance of the 18th of the family raised, which was read the first and second time by Special Order, and will pass and go Indorsed.

Sent to the Upper house by Capt. Maniater, Mr. Tyler, Capt.
 Jowles and Mr. Hanson, they return and say they delivered it.
 Col. Courtenay, Lt. Col. Young, Col. Edifon and Col. Tilghman from the Upper house delivers Mr. Speaker the following Message (Vizt.)

By the Upper House of Assembly Aug. 8th 1716.

Whereas there is now a considerable sum of Money in the Receivers hands appropriated for purchasing arms and Ammunition for the better security and defence of this Province and for that it is highly necessary the said arms and Ammunition should be well preserved in good order & Condition fitt for the service of this Province on any Emergent occasion requiring the same, We propose to you that an handsome house be built for the lodging and securing the publick Magazine of Arms in this City and also that part of the ammunition consisting of Ball, lead, Matches & Glints and all other Materials of that Nature except powder maybe there secured and that the said house maybe so contrived that it may likewise serve for a Council room and to receive the Country and Strangers which may resort to his Excellency the Governour on any publick occasions, and that the charge
