Gentlemen

The Grace you express for his most Sacred Majesty's Service and the Dutiful and affectionate Regard you have for the Lord Prop^r and his Lordship's Noble Guardian the Lord Guilford undoubtedly will be highly agreeable to their Highnesses nor shall I be wanting to give them Highnesses an early account of the Happy Disposition of your House.

Gentlemen,

I return you my most hearty Thanks for the Oblige-ing Sentiments you have both for my Administration and Person.

The Preserving your Laws and Privileges in the same Condition I found them at my first Arrival has been the sole View and Aim of my Action, and as my Conduct in so doing has been agreeable to their Lordships Commands and Intentions so there are many Allegor Days promised to your Country.

It is with Extream pleasure that I find you so readily come into my Request for the Propagation of Learning in this Province.
I will do all that lays in my power that may be proper to advance that good end, For in this and all other respects I shall be Joyfull to be an Instrument in promoting the Prosperity of Maryland as the most effectual means of being Faithfull to my Lord Prop^r and acting Impartially in my Station.
